Reasons for Allowance

1. Claims 1, 4-14, 17, 20-24 are allowed.

Applicants file a notice of Appeal and a Pre-Brief Conference Request. It results a withdrawal of the final action given in the Pre-Brief Appeal Conference decision mailed date, 06/14/06.

The Applicants' arguments that bring up to the reasons for allowance are set in records as in the Applicant's arguments, and particularly, filed in the Remarks of the Pre-Brief Conference Request result withdrawing the Final office Action.

As shown by Examiner' records, the prior art of records such as Silberschatz et al., "Operating System Concepts - Module 21: The Unix System", teaches modifying the running parent process associated with the defunct child process. Threads are created inside process control calls. However, Applicants within Pre-Brief Conference Request addressed that those are conventional.
